

Small Flowered Bullrush

Scirpus microcarpus

A triangular stemmed, perennial wetland grass growing up to 1.5 meters in height with leaf structures growing from its base and stems. The inflorescence appear as short spikes in small clusters at the tip of spreading branches with many leaf-like bracts just below the inflorescence. Fruiting is a pale, lenticular achene surrounded by 4-6 bristles and covered in greenish-black scales.

Sun zone

Medium sun

Full sun

Water zone

High water

Foliage colour

green

Bloom colour

green

Bloom months

June

July

Average height

1.5 m

Soil needs

Tolerates sandy, loamy, and clay soils.

Stock size

- Plug