

Creamy (Parsnip-flowered) Buckwheat

Eriogonum heracleoides

Clump forming perennial found in open rocky areas, or dotted amongst sagebrush steppes or ponderosa forests. Clusters of creamy colour flowers turn russet colour late May persisting through June-July. Provides excellent nectar for honey bees.

Sun zone

Full sun

Water zone

Low water

Foliage colour

green

Bloom colour

white

Bloom months

May

June

July

Average height

15 in

Average width

15 in

Stock size

- 1 Gallon
- 4 inch