Interior Oregon Grape

A common site throughout the Okanagan, this evergreen shrub leaves emerge reddish, changing to bronzed green, turning deep green with spiny tips. Bright yellow clusters of flowers appear in early spring, attracting many early pollinators. A choice pick for a native plant garden, to help stabilize slopes, or for growing near Ponderosa pine trees.

Mahonia aquifolium Stock category Shrubs Stock subcategory Native Xeriscape

Characteristics

Average height

5 ft

Average width

5 ft

Bloom colour

Yellow

Bloom months

April

Features ns-grap-01g Foliage colour Evergreen Soil needs

Dry, well-drained, acid loams. Tolerates damp soil.

Sun zone

Medium sun

Full sun

Water zone

Low water

Medium water