'Sandbar' Willow

A beautiful silver-leafed shrub that sends out multiple shoots to create dense clusters ideal for assisting with erosion control along stream/river banks; this native willow can withstand flooding. It's attractive leaves and whispy growth habit make it a nice addition to a pond or bog garden.

Botanical name
Salix exigua
Stock category
Shrubs
Stock subcategory
Native
Riparian

[−] Characteristics

Average height

10 ft

Average width

10 ft

Bloom colour

Green

Yellow

Bloom months

March
April
Foliage colour
Green
Silver
Soil needs
Moist loam, moist loam/silt mixture.
Sun zone
Full sun
Water zone
High water