

Creamy (Parsnip-flowered) Buckwheat

Clump-forming perennial found in open rocky areas, or dotted amongst sagebrush steppes or ponderosa forests. Clusters of creamy colour flowers turn a russet colour in late May persisting through June-July. Provides excellent nectar for honey bees.

Eriogonum heracleoides

Stock category

Perennials

Stock subcategory

Native

Xeriscape

Characteristics

Average height

15 in

Average width

15 in

Bloom colour

White

Bloom months

May

June

July

Foliage colour

Green

Sun zone

Full sun

Water zone

Low water