Golden Aster

A clumping perennial that thrives in a sunny, sandy-gravelly habitat. Its golden flowers emerge in bunches creating a brilliant show of colour that attracts many butterfly species. This drought-tolerant perennial is sure to stand out in a naturalized area, rock garden, or along a border with other sun-loving perennials.

Heterotheca villosa Stock category Perennials Stock subcategory Native Xeriscape

Characteristics
Average height

32 ft

Average width

24 ft

Bloom colour

Yellow

Bloom months

June

July

August
Features
Attracts pollinators
Deer resistant
Foliage colour
Green
Soil type
Rocky/Gravely
Sandy
Well drained
Sun zone

Full sun

Water zone Low water