Golden Aster

Heterotheca villosa is abundant not only in the foothills and mountains but also along roadsides. It needs little water often blooms for three or four months, and has a marvellous spicy-sharp sage aroma. The plant pictured is about seven inches tall and flowers are about a half inch in diameter.

"Villosa" is Latin for "hairy".

Heterotheca villosa Stock category Perennials Stock subcategory Native

Xeriscape

Characteristics

Average height

7 in

Average width

4 in

Bloom colour

Yellow

Bloom months

June

July
August
Foliage colour
Silver
Sun zone
Full sun

Water zone Low water