Round leaf Alumroot

A mounding perennial that features oval to heart-shaped, dark green leaves with toothed and scalloped margins. The flower stalk grows above the leaves and produces delicate bell-shaped flowers that attract bees and butterflies. Can be found growing in rocky woods, cliffs, ledges, slopes and subalpine meadows.

Heuchera cylindrica Stock category Perennials Stock subcategory Native Xeriscape

Characteristics
Average height

18 in

Average width

18 in

Bloom colour

White

Yellow

Bloom months

June

July Foliage colour Green Soil needs

Well drained, humus-rich

Sun zone Medium sun Full sun Water zone

Medium water