

Shrubby Penstemon

Evergreen semi-shrubby native perennial that spreads laterally in clumps. Blue-purple bell flowers appear in spring and are much loved by hummingbirds. Great for borders and rock gardens or natural areas that are low to sub-alpine elevations, on dry, rocky hillsides, cliffs, and open forests.

Penstemon fruticosus

Stock category

Perennials

Stock subcategory

Native

Xeriscape

Characteristics

Average height

18 in

Average width

24 in

Bloom colour

Purple

Bloom months

May

June

Foliage colour

Evergreen

Sun zone

Full sun

Water zone

Low water