Shrubby Penstemon

Evergreen semi-shrubby native perennial that spreads laterally in clumps. Bluepurple bell flowers appear in spring and are much loved by hummingbirds. Great for borders and rock gardens or natural areas that are low to sub-alpine elevations, on dry, rocky hillsides, cliffs, and open forests.

Penstemon fruticosus Stock category Perennials Stock subcategory Native Xeriscape

[–] Characteristics

Average height

18 in

Average width

24 in

Bloom colour

Purple

Bloom months

May

June

Foliage colour Evergreen Sun zone Full sun Water zone Low water