

'Blue Elf' Stonecrop

Sedum 'Blue Elf'

Blue Elf is extremely easy to care for and offers tons of foliage interest, and bright pink blooms in late summer.

It tolerates just about any type of soil, and does not require much water once established. It will crawl and spread in a container, or in the ground. And from August to October, it produces fluffy, hot pink flower clusters that have a pleasant scent that attracts butterflies.

Sun zone

Full sun

Water zone

Low water

Foliage colour

blue

green

silver

Bloom colour

pink

Bloom months

August

September

Average height

0.25 ft

Average width

1.5 ft

Stock size

- 1 Gallon