

Golden Aster

Heterotheca villosa

A clumping perennial that thrives in a sunny, sandy-gravelly habitat. It's golden flowers emerge in bunches creating a brilliant show of colour that attract many butterfly species. This drought tolerant perennial is sure to stand out in a naturalized area, rock garden, or along a border with other sun loving perennials.p

Sun zone

Full sun

Water zone

Low water

Foliage colour

green

Bloom colour

yellow

Bloom months

June

July

August

Average height

32 in

Average width

24 in

Features

attracts pollinators, deer resistant

Very Drought Tolerant

Stock size

- 4 inch