Shenandoah Switch Grass

The airy plumes add some elegance to your space as the colours dazzle with rich summer tones.

'Shenandoah' has airy plumes of rosy-red seed heads that rise above the foliage during the mid-summer and into early fall. Its grassy leaves are green with red on the tips, until fall when the foliage transforms into a gorgeous burgundy colour.

Deer resistant and great in mass plantings.

Panicum virgatum 'Shenandoah' Stock category Grasses Stock subcategory Ornamental

Characteristics

Average height

5 ft

Average width

3 ft

Bloom colour

Red

Bloom months

July
August
September
Foliage colour
Green
Red
Sun zone
Full sun
Water zone
Low water