Small Flowered Bullrush

A triangular-stemmed, perennial wetland grass growing up to 1.5 meters in height with leaf structures growing from its base and stems. The inflorescence appears as short spikes in small clusters at the tip of spreading branches with many leaf-like bracts just below the inflorescence. Fruiting is a pale, lenticular achene surrounded by 4-6 bristles and covered in greenish-black scales.

Scirpus microcarpus Stock category Grasses Stock subcategory Native Riparian

Characteristics

Average height

1.5 ft

Bloom colour

Green

Bloom months

June

July

Foliage colour

Green Soil needs
Tolerates sandy, loamy, and clay soils.
Sun zone Medium sun
Full sun
Water zone
High water